We have secured a new Grand Army Sleeve Button of chaste and unique design. The disk is of peari-tinted enamel, and upon its face, in raised work of tinted enamel, and upon its face, in raised work of heavy rollesi gold plate, is the eagle, cannon and cannon balls constituting the upper portion of the Grand Army badge, with the letters G. A. R. engraved in a scroll beneath. The setting is also or gold plate, and by pressing on a spring the button can be taken apart, thus making it easy to adjust it in the cuffs. In short, it is one of the most handsome, useful and valuable pieces of jewelry that has yet been devised, and is certain to bee me immediately popular. We take pleasure, therefore, in announcing that, by special arrangement with the manufacturers, we will send a pair of these sleeve buttons to may address on receipt of one dollar, or for a club of six new subscribers.
